DecoBird®

The summer birds are soaring

DecoBird is a series of hand-carved wooden birds that have now been joined by two flying summer birds; the swift and the house martin. Hanging from a thin wire, alone or in a flock, they adorn the ceiling, the window, the veranda and make a wonderful mobile to hang above a cot. As they gently sway their silhouettes give the impression that they are flying through the room.

The birds are hand-carved in lime in their natural size and shape and, like the rest of the range, they are hand-painted in environmentally friendly paints. They are supplied with wire and a small hook to attach to one of the pre-drilled holes in the back. The holes are used to achieve different angles of flight, giving a more natural impression.

If you would like to learn more about swifts and house martins as well as the sounds they make, please visit Wildlife Garden's website: www.wildlifegarden.info.
